JERSEY CITY -- A 52-year-old woman died Friday afternoon after being struck by a car that was backing out of a driveway on Grove Street. The incident, which happened just before 4:30 p.m., was reported to police by a resident in the area, authorities said. The woman was transported to Jersey City Medical Center, where she was pronounced dead, Hudson County prosecutor Grace H. Park said in a news release. Investigators believe the crash was not intentional. Police had not released information about the driver of the vehicle by late Friday afternoon. Anyone who witnessed the accident is asked to call the Hudson County Prosecutor's Office's Detective Bureau at 201-915-1234 or 201-915-1233. Editor's note: This story has been updated to reflect the correct address of the crash. Jessica Remo may be reached at jremo@njadvancemedia.com. Follow her on Twitter @JessicaRemoNJ. The Democratic National Committee accidentally released the names of the 16 superdelegates who had pledged their support to Hillary Clinton in July. The release of the list was quickly contained. And the decision to release it was made, according to party spokespersons, by one of the staffers who had sent the list to the DNC. A spokesperson for the party says she mistakenly didn't remove the emails containing the sensitive information from her personal email account, but that one of her colleagues became aware that it remained on her computer and immediately deleted it. According to the official: On July 14th, a member of our party's national team that set up the list emailed it to the wrong person. The email was sent to the wrong address and the wrong person, and it was quickly noticed and deleted. The list was updated and sent to superdelegates in a subsequent email. Right Wing Watch dug up some of the superdelegate's names, e.g., Governor Susana Martinez. The list, which can be found here, is still posted. f30f4ceada
